Nature moves in circles; art in straight lines. The natural is rounded; the artificial is made up of angles. A man lost in the snow wanders, in spite of himself, in perfect circles; the city man's feet, denaturalized by rectangular streets and floors, carry him ever away from himself.

"On s'est assis sur le talus, en relevant le col des vestes parce que l'air était glacé. On a allumé des cigarettes en regardant le ciel. D'abord on n'a vu que du noir, dense, irrécupérable. Mais quand les yeux s'habituent à l'obscurité, les petits points des étoiles commencent à apparaître. Il n'y en a pas beaucoup, à cause de la brume sans doute. On est un peu déçus, mais de toute façon, on est bien, là, assis sur le talus, à fumer nos cigarettes en regardant le grand mur du ciel... Ça permet de s'en aller loin dans l'espace sombre, en pensant aux pays où au même moment le soleil brille..."

LE CLEZIO

No, I don't like work, I had rather laze about and think of all the fine things that can be done. I don't like work — no man does — but I like what is in work — the chance to find yourself. Your own reality — for yourself, not for others — what no other man can ever know. They can only see the mere show, and never can tell what it really means.

"HOW OUR CLASS WAS MADE"

Time: 13 years

Ingredients: 1 tablespoon of fun and laughter 2 ounces of individualism
3 cups of growth
4 teaspoons of unity
A touch of Magic

Start off with Stuart, Frances, Margaret, Martha, Richard, Stephanie, Marva, and Andrew in kindergarten. Stir in Sam, Donna, Judd, and Sarah in first grade. Mix well during second grade. Sprinkle in John for third grade and let simmer during fourth grade. Blend in Jason, Darryl, and Peter in fifth grade, dipping Chudozie in sixth grade. Add Ken G., Wayne, Teddy, Linda K., Steve, Ed, Jeff R., Erica, and Rex in seventh grade. Season with David, Ken G. Lynn H, Linda H., Rick, and Shirin in eighth grade. Set aside and let cool. In ninth grade combine with Warri, Shari, Jimmy, Seth, Abigail, Jane, Eve, Clifton, and Peyton. Toss Cheryl, Ben L., Danny, April, and Jeff S. in tenth grade, and alternate with Marta, Ben F., Rob, Emily, Phil, and Lauri in eleventh grade. Complete the mixture by garnishing with Lynn G. and Claire in twelfth grade.

Serves: Friends Select School as the class of 1983.

Sarah—on friendship—

And let your best be for your friend. If he must know the ebb of your tide, let him know its flood also. For what is your friend that you should seek him with hours to kill? Seek him always with hours to live. For it is his to fill your need, but not your emptiness. And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and sharing of pleasures. For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

Dear Darryl,

Whatever years are allotted to each of us, no one ever knows ahead of time; that is one of the sweet mysteries of life. One thing is certain however, when a moment passes by it is gone forever, and nothing can recall it. So it is with your years in high school, which for you as a senior, are only memories now.

For some, these memories are tender and warm; for others they are bland, neutral perhaps even colorless. In Shakespear's words, however, "What's done Cannot be undone." Nonetheless, there is a large-looming future awaiting you which ought to be seized aggressively so that your life will be filled with time well spent and years well lived. Take the future and let it be yours; make the world and your place in it what they ought to be.

Love,
Mon, Dad & Malcolm Jr.

To David,

May he find The Peace of Wild Things: "When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be, I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds. I come into the peace of wild things who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water. And feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time I rest in the grace of the world, and am free."

Joshua,
If you are evil, vicious, callous, wicked, vile, vulgar and marginally good summer.
John Bernard.

Josh,

Have a nice summer and go on. Practice your trash can shooting (Ha Ha)
- Cheryl

Josh,
I barely know you, but maybe I can get to know you better in 8th grade.
Jenni Rosen

Josh,

Have a wonderful summer + a good next year. Hey Josh, your hairs not wet! Later maybe I'll be in your class
Zellian Clancey

Chloe McElwain

To Josh,
Have a good summer (How nice!) See you in 8th grade!

Josh (6)
you have been a very good friend this year!
Thankx for listening to a lot of my complaining everyday and listening to everything else. I will see you next year! Have a great summer.
you deserve it! Aina

Dear Josh,
Have a great Summer, but don't throw curveballs because we don't want your arm to hurt. The baseball team is struggling as it is. The Sabres are doing bad this year, Stop anyway

Dear Josh,
It has been nice sitting with you in English. You are very funny. Have a great summer. See you in the fall.
Zori

Well Josh,
it's the end of the year so now it's time to say have a good summer and I'll see you next year.
Matt M.

Josh,
Have a good vacation and don't despise you play
2nd base good anywhere
Desmar W.
P.S. see you in the 8.

Josh -
I think you are funny, and you're a great softball player Have a great summer and don't forget your humble advisory. Aisha

Josh,
Thank you went in my class, it was great having you in TPT.
Looking forward to seeing you in the fall.
7. from

Dear Josh,

It's been a fun year with you. Hope you have a good vacation and I'll hopefully see you next year.

Scott Clyde

There's no need to fear summertime is here. Jimmy Brown

Josh,
Even though we weren't friends until the end of the year I still think you're a cool dude. Goto lots of parties this summer

Josh-
You're a real friend and I'll see you at camp - good luck in 8th.

Mike

Josh,

Have a great summer and good luck in 8th grade.
stacy.

Dear Josh,
You better play C.W.V. Next year other wise the team will fall apart. especially if Dave Marcus play SS

Your friend.

Cole

Josh
I'm glad you are one of my friends. Have a great summer. Good luck in the 8th grade instead of you. Have a great summer and come back next year. Have a cool 8th grade unlike me.

Christian Ebert

- Bigelow

Dear Josh,
I'm glad to be in your class this summer. Have a great summer. Megan
